Our chosen charities this year:

The Invictus Trust

The Invictus Trust is a small charity which aims to support and offer services to local teenagers who are suffering from poor mental health and associated issues.

Bristol Royal Hospital for Children

The Bristol Royal Hospital for Children (BRHC) provides a local service for Bristol children and a referral service for specialist care for families across the South West and nationally. Their mission is to improve the health of the people they serve by delivering exceptional care, teaching and carrying out research daily. Their vision is for Bristol, and their hospitals to be among the best and safest places in the country to receive care.

Recipe for Cornish Sticky Cake:

Ingredients:

For the Fruit Layer:

- 1 tablespoon golden syrup
- 50g (2oz) butter
- 25g (1oz) brown sugar
- 40g (1 ½ oz) flaked almonds
- 40g (1 ½ oz) glace cherries, quartered
- 25g (1oz) sultanas
- 25g (1oz) stem ginger, cut into small pieces

For the sponge mixture:

- 175g (6oz) soft butter
- 175g (6oz) caster sugar
- 3 large eggs
- 175g (6oz) self-raising flour
- 1 ½ teaspoons baking powder
- 1 heaped tablespoon ground ginger

Method:

1. Preheat the oven to 180C/160C fan/gas. Grease and line a 900g (2lb) loaf tin
2. To make the fruit layer, measure the syrup, butter and sugar into a pan. Gently heat, stirring, until just melted. Add the almonds, cherries, sultanas and ginger pieces and stir until combined. Spoon into the base of the tin.

3. To make the sponge, measure all the ingredients into a bowl. Beat together until smooth and combined. Spoon on top of the fruit layer in the tin and spread out evenly.
4. Bake for 45 minutes until well risen and lightly golden. Leave to cool for 5 minutes then tip upside down and remove the paper. Cut into slices to serve.
